

Application for Personal Animal Based Research

This application is used only for observational studies that may include minor interference with animals. Permission is being granted for an observational study only (photographing close quarters; behavioural study with minor environmental manipulation; observation of animal behaviour; etc.)

By my signature below, I certify that the animals have not been interacted with, or where there was interaction, it would not be expected to compromise the animal's welfare any more than normal handling; feeding; etc. would cause. Furthermore, I attest that there has been no pain or suffering involved with this study.
